基础模块 1

第一部分 听力理解

第一节 听下面 5 段对话。每段对话后有一个小题,从题中所给的 A、B、C 三个选项中选出最佳选项。听完每段对话后,你都有 10 秒钟的时间来回答有关小题和阅读下一小题。每段对话仅读一遍。

Text 1

W: Do you have anything in your fridge? I haven't eaten a thing since breakfast.

M: Yeah, I know I've got some pizza left over from lunch today. There might not be enough for a proper dinner, but we could make a salad and heat up some soup, too.

Text 2

M: Where do you want to go for lunch, Marisa?

W: Well, I didn't have any breakfast, so I'm pretty hungry. And I have dinner plans at an Italian restaurant, so I don't want that.

M: I know! Let's go to Pedro's Cantina. They have the biggest plates of Mexican food in town!

Text 3

M: Hi, Mary. Why do you look so upset today?

W: I had a quarrel with my neighbor yesterday.

M: How come?

W: It is a long story. Basically, she thought I had laughed at her, but I didn't.

Text 4

W: Where were you yesterday? I thought you were meeting me for lunch.

M: I totally forgot! I'm so sorry.

W: I waited for you at the restaurant for two hours!

M: Let me make it up to you! I'll take you to a movie tonight and buy us some popcorn.

Text 5

W: Ouch! I just got attacked by a bee! I'm allergic to bees. You need to take me to the hospital right away. Don't forget to grab the dog! It's over there by the lake.

M: Stay right here while I get the dog and the car!

第二节 听下面 5 段对话或独白。每段对话或独白后有几个小题,从题中所给的 A、B、C 三个选项中选出最佳选项。听每段对话或独白前,你将有时间阅读各个小题,每小题 5 秒钟;听完后,各小题将给出 5 秒钟的作答时间。每段对话或独白读两遍。

听第 6 段材料,回答第 6、7 题。

M: Oh, it's 6:30 now. Susan isn't here to take care of the children yet.

W: She'll be here at 7:30.

M: Who else is coming tonight?

W: The Browns and the Franks. And Mrs. Johnson's sister will be here too.

M: Well, I think we'd better go down. Susan should be here pretty soon.

听第 7 段材料,回答第 8、9 题。

M: Excuse me! Could you bring us the bill please?

W: Just a moment, sir!

M: This restaurant is great! I just hope it's not too pricey!

W: Here's the bill, sir.

M: All right. Let's just split this three ways. The total is $ 180, so that's $ 60 each.

W: No problem.

听第 8 段材料,回答第 10 至 12 题。

W: Where are you going to spend Thanksgiving, at home or your mother's place?

M: Mom and Dad want to have all the family back home this year, so that's where we'll be. How about you?

W: I plan to have everyone come over to my place this year. There is really a lot of work, but I love having my family all together and I like to entertain.

M: Do you serve traditional dishes every year? I know our family does.

W: Yes, we do. We always have turkey and dressing, mashed potatoes and, of course, sweet potatoes. I think those are traditional dishes for most families. There is a fruit salad that we have every year and everyone looks forward to my pumpkin pie.

听第 9 段材料,回答第 13 至 16 题。

M: This seat taken?

W: No, go ahead, be my guest. Are you new in chemistry?

M: Yeah. In fact, I'm a freshman.

W: Oh, me too. Nice meeting you. My name is Mandy.

M: Nice meeting you, too. I'm Leslie. You know, I've heard a lot about you from Sammy and Tom. You are very popular. Everything I've heard has been good. I live in 404. Come over and visit when you have time.

W: Thanks for the invitation. I will.

M: I want to know more things about this campus.

Right now it seems very big and confusing.

W: Yeah, I have no idea where I am going or what I am doing.

M: Do you have a map of the campus?

W: Yes, I have, but it doesn't help me very much. I'm not good at reading maps.

M: Do you know where your classes are?

W: More or less. But I always get there late. I feel so helpless.

M: We are in the same boat(处境相同). That's because we don't know the short cuts.

W: We can ask the fellow students and they will show us the ropes(指点迷津).

M: Hello, everyone. Today I'm going to talk about first impressions. According to psychologists(心理学家), people form first impressions based first on how you look, then on how you sound, and finally on what you say. Your physical appearance—how you look—makes up 55 percent of a first impression. This includes facial expressions, body language, and eye contact, as well as clothing and general appearance. The way you sound makes up 38 percent of the first impression. People listen to your tone of voice and decide whether you sound friendly or unfriendly, interested or bored, and happy or sad. What you say—the actual words you use—counts for only 7 percent of the message. People form their first impressions within ten seconds of meeting you. And first impressions don't change easily. If someone gets the wrong impression of you, it can take a long time to change his or her mind.

听第 6 段材料,回答第 6、7 题。

W: What do you want to do tonight?

M: How about going to the movies? I should be home from work at 5:20. Then we can go out and eat and then go to the movies.

W: What do you want to see?

M: There is a good one at the cinema. Let's see that.

W: It starts at 6:30. I don't think we can get there in time to see the beginning. How about seeing the one at New State? That starts at 7:00.

M: No, I don't like Robert Redford. You know that. Maybe we should just stay at home and watch TV. Then we can go out on Friday night.

W: Did you forget that Ed and Jane are coming to dinner at that night?

M: Oh, yeah. I forgot about that. I hope Saturday is all right. Do we have anything planned then?

W: No. Saturday is fine. And there is a good movie starting on Saturday, too.

M: Good. I'm going to play tennis on Saturday morning. But I will be home by 2:00. Then we can go out for a big dinner and to the movies, if nothing else comes up.

W: I'm sure we'll be able to go.

W: The painting you put on the wall yesterday is really beautiful.

M: Oh, I'm glad you like it. It's one of the paintings I painted during my vacation last winter.

W: What? You painted it yourself? I can't believe it.

M: Well, I learned to paint twenty years ago.

W: Is it difficult to learn to paint?

M: Yes, very difficult. In those days, I usually had to sit for hours working on a single painting. In my summer holidays, I usually went to the mountains with my teacher and did nothing but paint.

W: What made you stop painting later?

M: Well, when I took up piano lessons in the middle school, I found it more interesting than painting. But it's really hard to give up painting.

W: I can imagine that. If you hadn't given it up, maybe we could have seen a great painter instead of a great pianist today.

W: What do you think of going out to get closer to nature at the end of the month?

M: I couldn't agree more. But can you fix the date now because I have to finish an experiment before that?

W: Will the 28th of April do? It's a Saturday.

M: That's OK. How will we go?

W: Now it's spring and the scenery is beautiful. I think it's better to go by bike.

M: What should I prepare?

W: You only need to prepare your own things, such as your clothes, shoes and so on. I'll buy some food and drinks. If it's convenient for you, shall we stay outside for the night?

M: Good idea. Then I will take my tent. Let's enjoy the beautiful night outside.

W: Then we'll come back on Sunday afternoon.

听第 9 段材料, 回答第 14 至 16 题。

W: Would you mind if I borrow your car?

M: Well, when exactly?

W: Until Monday or Tuesday.

M: I'm sorry, but it's not possible. I have to see my parents off at the airport on Tuesday morning. If you're not in a hurry, I can lend it to you next weekend.

W: All right. Then I will use your car from Saturday to Tuesday.

M: Could you explain where you will go, please?

W: My husband hopes that I can go to see his uncle with him. As you know, the bus doesn't go to his uncle's village.

M: Yes, I know it. Please give me a call when you come over to get the car.

W: Sure. Thank you.

听第 10 段材料, 回答第 17 至 20 题。

I've played football since I was eight years old and I'm fifteen now. I play for one of the best youth football teams in my area. My brother, who's fourteen, is also in the team. I've always wanted to play in the national team—the under-sixteens of course. And last week we were told that a coach was coming from the national team to watch us play. He was going to choose three really good players to take part in a youth match against another country. The big moment arrived on Tuesday. I scored a goal just before the end of the match and I saw the coach nodded to me. I was sure I'd be chosen. I ran over to the other players but I didn't look where I was going—I fell over and broke my leg. I was taken to the hospital. On Wednesday, the coach told me I was chosen, but of course I can't play now. My teammate George will take my place to play on Saturday.

W: I can tell you worked hard on it. Hope your teacher will agree.

Text 2

W: Hey, Don. Can you help me with the plans for Stan's birthday party?

M: Yes, but let's wait until lunch. Our boss could come back any minute, and we don't want him to see what we've been up to during working hours!

Text 3

M: Well, you know, every time I came out here, something crazy happened. Like, the first time, I forgot to take an umbrella.

W: I don't think that sounds crazy to me.

Text 4

M: I have to finish four papers in a week, so I'd really have a hard time.

W: I've told you it would be better if you prepared your papers at the beginning of the summer holiday.

Text 5

M: What will you do this Sunday, Susan? Surf the Internet at home?

W: I have no idea. What is your plan?

M: Maybe a day in the library. I have a test coming on next Monday.

听第 6 段材料,回答第 6、7 题。

W: Hi, Tom! How are you? We missed you at the party last night. Are you OK?

M: I don't know. I didn't really feel like going out. I guess I'm feeling a little homesick.

W: Come on. We've been through this already! Look, I know it's hard to get used to the environment when you first got here, but we agreed that you were going to try and deal with it.

M: I was. It's just that the holidays are coming up and I won't be able to go home because I can't afford the airfare. I'm just longing for some of the comforts of home, like my mom's cooking and being around my family.

M: Lisa, could you tell me how you usually spend your day?

W: Certainly. I usually wake up around 8 a. m. After I get up, I take a shower and then have breakfast. At 9 a. m., I begin to check e-mails and respond to questions about course progress.

M: When does your class usually begin?

W: It begins at 10 a. m. After class I usually have lunch at 1 p. m. At 2:30 p. m., I meet with a local community member co-working on a class project. At 3:30 p. m., I write up notes from the meeting, check e-mails and discussion boards, and continue course work.

M: When does your work usually end?

W: At 5:30 p. m., I return home and have dinner with family. Then it's family time.

M: What do you usually do at night?

W: I get out of house to visit friends and watch TV with my parents.

M: Do you work at night?

W: Yes. At 9:30 p. m., I begin to surf the Net. I check e-mails and discussion boards, visit the school's social discussion boards, and respond to teacher postings. It usually takes two hours.

W: Morning, Peter. Nice suit! A new one?

M: Oh, yes. My wife bought it for me yesterday.

Hmm, you look nice in that yellow dress. Yellow suits you really well.

W: Maybe. Several people also have suggested that I get more yellow clothes. They say the color suits me because of my skin.

M: That's right. You know, pink, green and black could also be good for you. Actually, I think all colors are okay for a person like you. Different colors can give people different impressions. For example, black could make you look mature, while pink could make you look young and energetic.

W: It's kind of you to say so. It sounds like you're a clothing expert.

M: Well, compared with my wife, I'm just a beginner. 听第 9 段材料,回答第 14 至 17 题。

W: Good morning. Today we're going to talk about one of my favorite topics: food. It's something we can't live without, yet we might take it for granted in some ways. Our guest today is Roger Sabata, a food scientist who's done a lot of research in this area. Welcome Mr. Sabata.

M: Thanks for having me.

W: So what's one of the biggest changes in eating habits that you've found?

M: Well, I'd say that the biggest change is the amount of eating out nowadays.

W: I'd never really think of it, but of course, thinking of my parents and how often they were likely to eat out compared to me in my life, well, it's a lot different.

M: Exactly. And then kids nowadays eat out even more often. Teenagers are eating a lot more fast food than we used to! Now, think of some of the effects of this change in habits.

W: I'd guess it probably isn't all that healthy.

M: Not really. For example, there's soda and soft drinks instead of milk. Twenty or twenty-five years ago, people—especially kids—drank a lot more milk. Nowadays, they drink about twice as much soda as they used to and a lot less milk.

W: Chocolate is very popular in Britain just like in all the other countries of the world. The British are one of the biggest consumers of chocolate. They eat about 10kg per person per year. Apparently women buy more chocolate than men, but it doesn't mean they eat more because they give some of it away as a present. Men buy less chocolate, but normally eat it all themselves. And finally, according to statistics, most men would rather eat chocolate than drive around in a sports car; and most women rather spend an evening eating chocolate than in the theater.

The popularity of chocolate is shown by the fact that there are chocolate societies, chocolate weekends and there are magazines just about chocolate in Britain. But what makes it so special?

Scientists proved that chocolate can make you feel physically good because of the materials it contains. It is sweet, light and absolutely delicious. But on the other side if you eat a lot of chocolate you may put on weight and become fat. And dentists say that it is not good for your teeth. So chocolate makes you feel good but you often feel bad about eating a lot of chocolate because you know or you think it's not good for you.

Text 2

W: Songs that make our hearts happy can make them stronger, too?

M: Sure. It's a new find by American researchers and reported in Russia on Tuesday.

Text 3

W: Do you have any change? I'm dying for candy and this machine won't give change.

M: Look. This one gives change. I think I'll get something to eat, too.

Text 4

W: Good morning. May I help you, sir?

M: Yes, could I change these pounds for dollars, please?

W: Do you want small bills or large ones?

M: Both are OK.

Text 5

M: Why didn't you call me yesterday? I was waiting by the phone all day.

W: I'm sorry, but I couldn't call. I couldn't find a phone.

M: What do you mean you couldn't call? You have a cellphone, don't you?

W: I used to have a cellphone. The teacher took it away because I tried to call you from class.

听第 6 段材料,回答第 6、7 题。

M: Hello. Can I help you?

W: Oh, hello. Yes. I want something to wear at a conference.

M: So, you're looking for something quite smart.

W: Yes. Some kind of business suit... Hmm, this is nice. Is this one on sale?

M: Yes, it is. There's a 25% reduction on this one. It's a real bargain.

W: Hmm. It's still a bit expensive for me. Is there a discount for cash?

M: Oh, no, I'm sorry.

W: Oh, well, can I try it on?

M: Yes, of course. The changing room is just over there.

W: Thanks.

听第 7 段材料,回答第 8、9 题。

W: My grandfather hasn't been too well lately.

M: Oh dear. I'm sorry to hear that.

W: He's 79. Don't you think he should slow down a bit at his age?

M: Absolutely.

W: But he won't listen to me. He says he wants to enjoy his life to the full.

M: Fair enough.

W: Last summer he went on a two-week cycling holiday in France. Last winter he attended a skiing contest.

M: You are kidding. I can't believe it.

W: We're going to give him a big party for his 80th birthday.

M: That's great.

W: But before that, I'm going to have a word with him and tell him to take things more easy.

M: Good for you.

听第8段材料,回答第10至12题。

M: This is all your fault! This wouldn't have happened if you hadn't tried to give money to that policeman!

W: Well, if you'd listened to me when I suggested asking someone for directions, we shouldn't have got lost in the first place, would we?

M: Oh, go on! Blame it all on me! You were the one who was driving when we got stopped by the police. If you hadn't been speeding, we wouldn't have been stopped at all!

W: That's not fair. We were doing fine until you suddenly decided you knew a quicker way!

M: Oh, come on! I only suggest it because we were running so late. We would've been fine if you hadn't suggested driving instead of taking the train.

W: No! We would've been fine if you had remembered to book tickets!

听第9段材料,回答第13至16题。

W: Why is it that some children perform better than others at school?

M: Obviously, certain children are brighter than others. But it is not that simple. A lot of emphasis is placed on intelligence measured by tests.

W: The so-called IQ tests?

M: Yes. Basically they are intended to test language and numerical ability, so some children are bound to suffer. This is very unfortunate. A child with an average IQ may turn out to be successful when he grows up.

W: What you are saying is that some children have abilities that are not easy to measure.

M: Exactly. If these abilities are not discovered early, they cannot be developed. That's why there are so many unhappy parents in the world. They are not doing the things they are best at.

W: I see.

M: But at school, only those who are good with words and numbers will probably do well in exams.

W: Right. Is there anything a parent can do to help in this case?

M: Yes. In my opinion, a child should be judged on his individual talents. After all, being happy in life is putting your skills to good use, no matter what they are.

听第10段材料,回答第17至20题。

Mr. Mora is a famous university president. He is remembered as a humorous man because his lectures cause laughter from time to time. He is also remembered by his family and friends for being absent-minded. There are many interesting stories about Mr. Mora, which amuses people.

Once on a train, a conductor came to Mr. Mora, asking for his ticket. He began to search his pockets.

No ticket appeared. Mr. Mora began searching his suitcase. "Never mind, sir," said the conductor, seeing how anxious Mr. Mora was becoming and trying to comfort him. "When you find your ticket, just post it to the station. I'm sure you have it somewhere." "I'm sure, too," said the president as he continued searching. "But I must find it. I need to know where I'm going."

Mr. Mora got off the train in New York and hurried to the post office to make a telephone call to his secretary. "I'm in New York now but I don't know why," said Mr. Mora, feeling like a small boy who had got lost. Within minutes came the short reply, "You are not supposed to be in New York. You should be in Princeton to give a lecture."
